

JENNIFER J. FONDREVAY

INTRO/STAGE BIO

Our next speaker joins us thanks to her failed attempts to become Ambassador to France.

As a Fortune 500 corporate executive, she led global teams through multibillion-dollar acquisitions and authored the ground-breaking business book, "NOW WHAT? A Survivor's Guide for Thriving through Mergers & Acquisitions", the only illustrated M&A book to feature a Spotify playlist.

Named #1 M&A Speaker by Leadership Research Institute, she's published in HBR, Fast Company, and Inc., and writes a business strategy column for Forbes.

Beyond these accomplishments, one of Jennifer's proudest personal achievements (other than her 27-year marriage and raising two college-age kids), is restoring and driving her 1965 sky-blue Ford Mustang across Route 66.

Join me in welcoming the founder of Day1Ready, and the only woman in M&A to routinely have a Dominatrix and Former Rock star join her on stage....

Please welcome: Jennifer J Fondrevay! (Ph-ON-DRUH-VAY)

A/V REQUIREMENTS

IN-PERSON EVENTS

- Lavalier microphone
- Handheld microphone for audience Q&A
- Podium or table available but on side of stage
- Computer or set up for slides (will bring on flash drive; using PowerPoint for Mac)
- Remote for slide advancement & music control
- Speakers for music (integrated in PowerPoint)
- Confidence monitor
- Easels x10 to hold posterboards (set-up: 4-5 on stage, others spread around the room) – if not possible, can use chairs

VIRTUAL EVENTS

- Slide & screen sharing (PowerPoint) including ability to share music
- Chat enabled
- Moderator for moderation of Q&A
- Advance tech check rehearsal
- Zoom producer to enable breakouts
- Spotlight Jennifer's video